Hello, Quilters!

December is here, and for me it came quickly. I was enjoying no more ninety degrees and less humidity when all of a sudden there was snow. For all of those traveling on Thanksgiving, I am thankful the roads were free and clear of ice and snow. I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Those who took the "Oversize Flower Power" class with Debra Danko produced some amazing work themselves and Debra's presentation we all enjoyed and I believe she enjoyed being here also.

This month will be "Hoffman Challenge Quilts" and desserts. Both of these I know we will like. Don't forget we are all to bring desserts for the December meeting, just desserts.

Amy revealed the mystery of what the silver fabric is to be used for in this year's challenge quilts, and she is tying it in with of the beginning of our guild. The year 2019 will be our 25th anniversary. Carol Keen is forming a subcommittee for a special celebration in May when we display the challenge quilts. Those who have any stories of our beginning, Carol would love to hear them.

At the November sew-in everyone had a good time, and besides serving breakfast the nurses even helped with some of the other tasks.

Two more books are being added to our library. There are some great books in the library, check them out.

Enjoy this beautiful season.

Charlene Lozicki

Our next meeting is December 10, and the next board meeting is January 15.

Upcoming Programs and Classes

Wendy Rice & Dianne Gustafson

Sign-up sheets and additional information for classes will be at the program table at each meeting. For additional information, questions or ideas for next year, contact Wendy Rice (616-935-7430 / wendyrice49@gmail.com) or Dianne Gustafson (616-844-1659 / bdgusto@comcast.net).

December 10, 2018:

Program: Hoffman Challenge Quilts and Holiday Desserts. Great time to try out a new holiday dessert.

The Hoffman Challenge, put on by the Hoffman company, is in its 30th year as a quilt contest where certain Challenge fabrics are used in an entry for the contest. The entries that are accepted are judged and boxed up and sent to quilt guilds that request them. We have been fortunate to get to see them at our guild several years. This is, however, the last year for this particular type of challenge. From Hoffman's site: "As Hoffman strives to lead the industry in change and innovation, we have decided to make this 30th anniversary the final year of The Hoffman Challenge as you know it. We have a collective goal to bring you a new and innovated Hoffman Challenge in the future".

January 14, 2019

Program: Nancy Roelfsema from Grand Rapids will be presenting a program.

Nancy started sewing when she was 10. She taught herself to quilt at first by hand. She continued to sew clothing and do alterations for friends in college. Her first job at a quilt shop was at "The Grand Quilt Shop", located in Eastbrook Mall and then on Alpine. She taught classes and managed that store for several years. She also works in sales at Notions Marketing. As a show host-producer of OnPoint tutorials, she is doing what she really loves, teaching others to quilt. Nancy is an excellent teacher, always finding the easiest and best way to accomplish a task. Check out some of her tutorials at

Please check out Ruth Ann's website (<https://www.quiltersclinic.com>) for all 12 of her bargello patterns, you may pick any one to do. The patterns are $8.00 and her kits are $50.00 which includes the pattern. Seems like a great way to go if you like her colors. The cost of the class will be $35.00. ### Community Outreach Sew-In

Elizabeth Clark and Kim Frisch

We had 23 members and nine nurses at our Sew-In and everyone contributed to its overwhelming success. The breakfast buffet from the nurses at the Ottawa County Maternal and Infant Health Department was wonderful and energizing. The sewing machines started buzzing, sewing kits for the baby quilt program.

The nurses helped immensely -- they cut 80 yards of batting and packaged it and made nearly 100 quilt backings. They ironed and sewed and were generally helpful throughout the morning. We all enjoyed hearing about their visits to the new mothers and babies, and how our quilts made their jobs so meaningful.

We had three new quilt patterns for our stitchers -- ranging from the On-Pointe quilt with its sashed blocks to a bright Harlequin and the Wonky Donkey, a liberated quilt technique. Lots of tops at the end of the day!

The Community Outreach team was thrilled to have such a boost for our program and we thank everyone who made it such a success!
